

Your SMSes

● No people have been prosecuted for feeding baboons according to (Dr Ernst) Baard, yet over 30 baboons have been killed for “bad behaviour”. Culling baboons is already happening. Wake up, Cape Town!

● I have lived next to the forest for 11 years. I have two young kids, dogs and cats, and never has a baboon harmed any of us. If they visit and look for food, they do nothing and leave again. We close all doors and windows until they go. There is no reason to kill them. I would like my kids and grandchildren to also see the wild Cape baboons.

Malaika

● I am white, receive a government pension